

Major Index - Minor Index - Slide: IM-F-78

Roland's Notes about this image:	Cartoon, anti-immigration. "Instead of Modifying the Immigration Law to let more of these in, We should be strengthening the Immigration law and sending These HOME." "These" include alien thugs, an alien bagman, an alien bootlegger, alien drug peddler, alien bandit, alien woman criminal and undesirable alien. In the picture on left, those with arms outstretched to get in are shown as old, hag-like and untidy.
----------------------------------	--

Citation:	Saturday Evening Post , April 10, 1926, p. 35.
-----------	---

Copyright Disclaimer

The materials included in the Marchand Collection website are original works of authorship, government records, works for which copyright permission has expired, works reprinted with permission, or works that we believe are within the fair use protection of the copyright laws. If any copyright owner objects to the use of any work appearing in these pages, please contact us by email at historyproject@ucdavis.edu and we will remove the work and review the propriety of including it. This is an educational and non-commercial site designed specifically for K12 history teachers within California, maintained by the History and Cultures Project, Department of History, UC Davis.

By continuing, you are acknowledging your understanding of this notice and your agreement to use these images accordingly and for educational purposes only.

Resources by Standard | Marchand Collection | Image Database | Calendar & Events | Project Leadership | About Us | Contact Us

<http://historyproject.ucdavis.edu>
a california history social science project