ISS LESSON

Soooo… You have ISS! What I'd like you to do now is write two short essays about where you might be academically and socially in 5 years if you keep going down the same road that go you in here today. I realize that no one can see in into the future but… I just want you to imagine a future with you doing the same or similar goofy stuff over and over again. Where will it likely lead you?

Please write a minimum of 25 words for each section.
