FIGHT

Lesson 2

What kind of conflicts did you witness yesterday in ...
TV
Movies
Newspapers
Books
Real Life

*Write down one conflict that you remembered happened yesterday.

*(write it on the inside of your folder)

WHEN CONFLICT BECOMES A FIGHT

- How many conflicts end in fights?
- What do you think of conflicts you have watched, read, or witnessed in the media?
- How many conflicts that you watched on TV or on a movie ended violently?

Which do you think have conflicts?

How does viewing
violence on TV (news
and shows) and in
the movies
influences your view
of conflict and
violence in real life?

What percentage of people
think that TV is real?

28%

Therefore 72% percent know that it is not.

How many hours of the day
does the average middle school student watch TV?

3 hours

...that would be 21 hours per week!
By graduation from high school
that would be 21,000 hours -
compared to 11,000 hours
of class time!

By the time you are 18 years
old you have seen

18,000

murders and 800

suicides

We can take certain steps to resolve our conflicts without fighting. We know that fighting often leads to more violence. In the upcoming lessons, we will learn and practice how to deal with common problems that often lead to fighting.
