You are a writer for an advice column in your middle school's newspaper. You receive the letter below and your editor wants you to include it in the next addition. Write your advice to "Sad Inside" on the lines provided.

Dear Annie,

There are three people in my group of friends who like to bully others. Now, they are teasing me because I come from a different country than the United States. I like these people and still want to be part of the group, however, I do not like being teased about being born outside the USA. What can I do?

Sincerely,
Sad Inside