

Have you ever thought that riding the bus could be the hardest part of the day for some middle school students?

How could you help a student on a bus who:

always sits alone on the bus because no one wants to sit with him/her has items taken from him/her by others on a regular basis is tripped while going down the aisle is called names and does nothing to provoke it

