

People Search!

Directions: Try to collect as many signatures as you can. This activity is a pretest for many of the things you will learn this year in language arts. You may skip around the list, but you may not collect anyone's signature more than once. There is a prize for the person who gets the most signatures and follows the directions. The winner will have to justify the answers so you might want to take notes next to the signatures.

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

1. knows what M.O.V.I.E.S. stands for.
2. can explain what a thesis statement is.
3. knows who wrote The Tell-Tale Heart.
4. can remember one of the five most common spelling rules.
5. can explain one of the three different points of view an author can use.
6. remembers one of the four conflicts often used by authors.
7. can explain what the setting is in a literary work.
8. can explain what how to find the climax in a literary work.
9. knows another word for the ending of a plot (starts with r).
10. can explain what it means to find the theme of a literary work.
11. knows a reference book for finding synonyms and antonyms.
12. knows who knows the author of the Harry Potter books.
13. knows what schoolnotes.com is.
14. remembers one of the 16 types of analogies.
15. knows the literary term for a main character.
16. knows the literary term for the character or thing in opposition to the main character.
17. knows what poets use instead of paragraphs (starts with s).
18. knows how a paragraph is like an accordion.
19. knows the difference between the subject and the predicate of a sentence.
20. can explain when to use a or an before a noun.