

Sentence Parts

Subject

Predicate

1. The middle school student

decided to organize a canned food drive.

2. My insensitive little brother

listened in on my phone call as I spoke to my boyfriend.

3. The heroic teen

pulled the baby from the burning car.

4. The eagle, large and strong,

perched itself on top of the spruce tree looking for its prey.

5. The newborn moose calf

tried with all of its might to get untangled from the hose.

6. The snowboarder

hurled herself down the mountain without any fear.

Who or what the sentence is about - what the rest of the words are gossiping about

Tells what is happening to the subject - states its predicament

Sentence Parts

Simple Subject

Simple Predicate (verb)

1. The middle school student

decided to organize a canned food drive..

2. My insensitive little brother

listened in on my phone call as I spoke to my boyfriend.

3. The heroic teen

pulled the baby from the burning car.

4. The eagle, large and strong,

perched itself on top of the spruce tree looking for its prey.

5. The newborn moose calf

tried with all of its might to get untangled from the hose.

6. The snowboarder

hurled herself down the mountain without any fear.

Who or what the sentence is about - what the rest of the words are gossiping about

Tells what is happening to the subject - states its predicament