

How to Make Inferences...

Read Between the Lions!

Choose a question from your reading that hasn't been answered to your satisfaction. Record the question below. Then, using the clues in the text, add any background knowledge you have to supply an inference. Remember many of these questions don't have one right answer. Be brave!

1. Record a question you have from your reading that you are most curious about.
2. Go back to the text and record any textual evidence that might help you answer your question.
3. Combine the clues in the text with your background knowledge and try to answer the question you asked in number 1.
