

Final Draft Writing

Self- Reflections

Directions: On a separate piece of notebook paper, please answer these questions as honestly as you can. Then staple your responses to your final piece of writing and turn it in.

1. Explain how you chose your topic.
2. What was the easiest part to write and why?
3. What challenges did you encounter in your writing?
4. Describe the feedback you received along the way that helped you revise.
5. What part of your piece are you the most proud of and why?
6. If you still had more time on this piece of writing, what would you do next?
7. Is there anything else you want to your reader to know about this piece of writing?
8. Please copy this stamp onto your notebook paper and then score your piece of writing using the rubrics. Use a 6-point scale.
