

Preparing for Student-Led Conferences

Use your team time to:

- Create the forms your teams will use for the conferences
- Schedule conferences
- Consider the work samples you will collect for the conference portfolio
- Fill out evaluation forms for each student

Use your class time to:

- Allow students to complete class reflection forms
- Allow students to select work samples for the portfolio
- Give students time to prepare for their presentations

Advantages

1. Students become more accountable for their learning.
2. Parents become more involved in the learning process.
