ASD MEMORANDUM #290 (2000-2001)

May 21, 2001

TO: SCHOOL BOARD
FROM: OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT
SUBJECT: STATE HISTORY DAY WINNERS

PERTINENT FACTS:

National History Day is a highly regarded and academically challenging history program for students in grades 6-12. The educational contest fosters academic achievement and intellectual growth. In addition to acquiring useful historical knowledge and perspective during the series of district, state and national competitions, students develop critical thinking and problem solving skills. Congratulations to the following students:

Paper category:

first place: Rachelle Leone, "The Alaska Pipeline"
second place: "Ray Kroch" by Nicholas Stramp

Exhibit category (group):

first place: Alison Magby and Emily Young for Black Death

Exhibit category (individual):

first place: Amy Sciuto for The Discovery of Longitude
second place: Rachel McNeil, The Making of the Printing Press

Documentary category:

first place: Zak Melms and Mike Hinckley for The Exploration and Development of the American Southwest

These Goldenview students will go on to compete in the National History Day 2001 competition at the University of Maryland June 10-14.

It is requested the School Board recognize these State History Day winners
