ASD MEMORANDUM # 293 (2002-2003)

May 19, 2003

TO: SCHOOL BOARD
FROM: OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT
SUBJECT: 2003 BATTLE OF THE BOOKS WINNERS

PERTINENT FACTS:

The 2002-2003 Battle of the Books voluntary reading program was organized by district school librarians for students in elementary, middle and high school. The purpose is simply to encourage students to read books and have fun while reading them. Congratulations to the following Anchorage School District Battle of the Books winners:

- Maia Claman, Thomas Howe, Nathaniel Rubin, and Sydney Treuer, 4th grade students at Chugach Optional School;
- Jasper Jackson and Rebekah Butler, 4th grade students at Family Partnership Charter School;
- Moyo Ajayi, Aaron Brown, Andrew Dougherty, and Brendon Moran, 5th and 6th grade students at Susitna Elementary School;
- Thomissa Comellas, Michaela Orzechowski, Danika Paskvan and Kirsti Riehle, 5th grade students at Bowman Elementary School;
- Katelyn Hoden, Cameron Jefts, and Natasha Veenhof, 7th grade students at Gruening Middle School; and
- Jennifer Blankenship, Olivia Putman, Mallory Rice, and Michelle Rowland, 9th grade students at Dimond High School.

It is requested that the School Board recognize the 2003 Battle of the Books district winners who have gained knowledge and enjoyment from reading good books, and sharing them with friends, parents and teachers.
