Our records show that your child is eligible for the Bilingual /Multicultural Education Program at the Newcomers' Center (NCC). The Newcomers' Center is a program located at King Career Center and is designed for non-English speakers, recent immigrant students, grades 7-8. According to State Law, New-to-district students, coming from a language background other than English are eligible for this program based upon their fluency in English, parent and teacher surveys, and Idea Proficiency Test (IPT) assessment. Your student is eligible for English-as-a Second Language (ESL) classes. Instruction is in English and is individualized through language laboratories and small groups. At the Newcomers' Center (NCC), we are offering ESL Language Arts and ESL Social Studies. Each of these courses meets and fulfills the middle school requirements for language arts credits.

In the Beginning ESL class, students receive intensive, sheltered English Instruction in listening, speaking, reading, writing, grammar and vocabulary.

The ESL Social Studies classes are designed to meet the language and cultural needs of the bilingual student and fulfill the middle school requirements for each content area.
