Naked Guys in Trees

Media: Video

Main Message: Alcohol places people in awkward social and safety situations. Your sense of responsibility to your friends should not override your own safety. You have a choice and responsibility when it comes to alcohol, regardless of peer pressure.

ASD SEL Standard: (1D) Students have a sense of personal responsibility.

Discussion Questions:

1. How is making a responsible choice harder when friends are involved?
2. When making a decision involving friends, do you think most teens stand up for themselves or make the choice friends would like?
3. Why do you think teens give in to peer pressure?
4. What do you think is the most effective way to saying no to a friend?
5. In the movie, teens seemed to know the correct choice without being told. Do you think most teens know what they should do?
6. Do teens think of consequences or assume they won't get caught or hurt?
7. What are some alternatives to underage drinking that could be presented to teens?
8. What role do you think adults play in teen choices?
9. How do you think boys and girls differ in their decision making?
10. Are the numbers and statistics involving teen deaths and alcohol a concern when making a choice involving your safety?
