Crossroads School Overview

Statement of Program

Crossroads is the Anchorage School District’s school for pregnant and parenting teens. Crossroads provides a supportive environment that allows students to continue their education while pregnant and/or parenting. The Crossroads staff is committed to providing quality instruction in an environment that fosters regular attendance and student responsibility for learning. A complete program of instruction is provided with an emphasis on core academics, affective skill development, and college/career readiness. Maternal health and child development classes are required electives for our students. The program utilizes traditional coursework in conjunction with computer-based courses to meet the individual academic needs of the students. Students may earn a diploma from Crossroads, accredited through the Northwest Association of Accredited Schools.

N/A is used to indicate when a group does not need to be evaluated when:

(1) 20 or fewer students are enrolled in a group for all groups except "All Students".

(2) 40 or fewer students are enrolled FAY (column D) in the Disabled & LEP groups.

* For the groups where the number enrolled is fewer than or equal to 40, participation is met when no more than 2 miss the test. Groups can also meet this target using the average of the past two or three years.

** Where a group achieves a "Yes" without meeting the listed target, it has done so using either the 99% confidence interval or Safe Harbor.

*** Results cannot be published without releasing personally identifiable information.
