

Declamation Poster Contest Information

Regional World Language Declamation Contest only

2012 Theme: “The limits of my language are the limits of my world.”
--Ludwig Wittgenstein

- 1. Each school may enter five posters per language, regardless of level.
- 2. Individuals or groups of students (no limit) may submit a poster entry. All participants must meet eligibility requirements.
- 3. A standard size (22” by 28”) sheet of poster board or foam core needs to be used.
- 4. The entry must reflect the theme announced yearly. Designs need to be in good taste and devoid of vulgar language (in any language!)
- 5. In addition to hand drawn designs, 3-D designs, computer generated graphics/lettering or pictures clipped from magazines, brochures, etc. are all acceptable.
- 6. Poster entries need to be delivered to Angie Nishimura at East High School in room 212 no later than Monday, January 23 or bring to the January World Language Curriculum Committee meeting.
- 7. Poster judging will take place prior to the regional contest day.
- 8. The back of each poster must include the following information, either typeset or printed neatly:
  - The first and last names of all students who worked on the entry.
  - Language
  - Teacher
  - School
- 9. Posters lacking this information will not be judged.
- 10. Poster entries will be judged in the following areas: theme clearly conveyed, mixing/arrangement of colors and materials, attention to detail and overall quality of poster.
- 11. The top five entries per language will be awarded ribbons.
- 12. Winning posters will be on display at the regional contest. Posters should then be picked up by each school. Unclaimed posters may be discarded.
