

Use the following course numbers when assigning
ON-SITE SUPERVISING TEACHER

The Alaska Department of Education defines On-site Supervising Teacher as follows: "Teacher whose primary responsibility involves supervision of a class of students receiving computer-based instruction." An on-site supervising teacher works in the immediate proximity of the student receiving computer-based instruction. The following course numbers should be used when assigning on-site supervising teachers in Zangle. Failure to use the following course numbers for assigning an on-site supervising teacher may result in the teacher needing to submit an HQ Plan.
