

EAGLE RIVER HIGH SCHOOL

Daily Announcements for Wednesday, November 4th, 2009

News from the CRC

1. The ASVAB test will be given here at ERHS on Nov 6. This is an aptitude and career exploration test. Sign-up in the CRC.
2. The following colleges will visit our school this week. APU, Pacific Lutheran University, UAF School of Management, and Oregon State University. Refer to the bulletin board across from the CRC for dates and times.
3. Heads up juniors and seniors...do you want to find out if you are ready for college math and English? The ACCUPLACER test will give you immediate feedback. This test will be given at KCC on Nov 3 from 1:45 – 3:15. The cost is $15.00. Sign-up in the CRC.

Key Club:

Remember Key Club members, there is a meeting today during lunch in Mr. Richard's room A104. Key Club is going to have a lot of service projects coming up for the holiday season, and new members are necessary! Key Club is an amazing opportunity to provide community service which can be documented on college applications. If you are interested, you can still join...come check out the meeting today.

Mentorship Program

Reminder. The Application deadline for second semester Gifted Mentorship placements is Monday, Nov. 16. We already have training sessions scheduled for early December.

Applications are available in the CRC and library, or online, and must be completed by Nov. 16.

Smoothies from Model UN

The Model United Nations club is selling smoothies to raise money to purchase "lifestraws" for people in countries where clean water is inaccessible. The smoothies will be sold on Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting today, for $3.00 each in the commons. For every smoothie you buy your name will be entered into a raffle for an ipod shuffle.

Do you like to perform? Do you love poetry? Are you naturally competitive by nature? If so, sign-up to participate in Poetry Outloud, a national poetry competition. You could win a chance to compete in Washington D.C.! If interested, come talk to Ms. Odyniec in room A-228 during lunch on Thursday, November 5th or Friday, November 6th.

Congratulations to the JV hockey team beating Palmer 8-1.

Also, congratulations to the Varsity team winning 4-3.

Connor Sperry scored all 4 goals with Dakota Wood and Ben Russell assisting on 3.
