

EAGLE RIVER HIGH SCHOOL

Daily Announcements for Friday, November 6th, 2009

News from the CRC

1. Listen up Fort Richardson students...are you looking for community service and volunteer hours? ERHS has a partnership with Chester Valley Elementary School at JFK on Fort Richardson. This school needs high school students to tutor their students in reading. If you are interested, sign-up in the CRC. Volunteer hours are after school.
2. All students...we also have a partnership with Homestead Elementary School. This school needs volunteers in their kindergarten classes, library, and reading tutors. Sign-up in the CRC. Volunteer hours are after school.

Mentorship Program

Reminder. The Application deadline for second semester Gifted Mentorship placements is Monday, Nov. 16. We already have training sessions scheduled for early December.

Applications are available in the CRC and library, or online, and must be completed by Nov. 16.

Poetry Out Loud

Do you like to perform? Do you love poetry? Are you competitive by nature? If so, sign up to participate in Poetry Out Loud, a national poetry competition. You could win a chance to compete in Washington D.C.! If interested, come talk to Ms. Odyniec in room A-228 during lunch today or Friday, November 6th.

Girl's Basketball

There is a mandatory meeting today at lunch in the gym for all girls planning to play basketball this year.

Popcorn Friday

The Junior class will be selling "Prom-Corn" (popcorn) on Friday, after school in the commons. It is only a dollar and your contributions will help to make our prom AWESOME.

Reminder

Parking places that are designated as visitor parking are for VISITORS only. Those spaces are not for staff or students.
