Application

Teacher:

Please fill out this portion after students have done their part, then place in Brenda Avery's mailbox or send inter-school mail. This will be treated as a confidential recommendation.

Students in these classes are expected to keep grades up, are trusted to move throughout the building during class working on projects, and are trusted with very expensive video cameras and other equipment. Knowing that there will be a limited amount of seats in this class, briefly describe the applicant's strengths and abilities in relation to this elective.
