

The Alaska Constitution

1. The Alaska Legislature is made up of what two bodies?
2. How many senators are there in the Alaska Senate?
3. What are the qualifications to be in the Alaska Senate?
4. What are the qualifications to be in the Alaska House of Representatives?
5. How many members of the Alaska House of Representatives are there?
6. What is the term of office for a senator? For a representative?
7. What fundamental power is vested in the Alaska Legislature?
8. Under the Alaska Constitution, who has the power to impeach civil officers?
9. What vote must be achieved if a bill is to be passed by the legislature?
10. Describe the veto power the governor has over legislation passed by the legislature?
11. What kind of vote does it take for the legislature to override a governor's veto?
12. What power is vested in the governor?

13. What is the term of office for a governor and what limits are placed on their tenure?
14. Who appoints the heads of government departments?
15. What state official may declare martial law?
16. What state official can convene the state legislature in special session?
17. What state official may appoint members of boards and commissions?
18. What state institution is vested with judicial power and jurisdiction?
19. What is the highest court in Alaska?
20. How do Alaska's judges get their positions?
21. Who is able to vote in Alaska elections?
22. What state institution is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of public schools?
23. In Article 8, what does Section 1 say is the policy of the State regarding its land?
24. In Article 8, what do Sections 3 and 4 say about how state resources are to be managed?

25. What are the provisions of Article 9, Section 15?

26. What is established by Article 9, Section 17?

27. In Article 11, what do the following terms allow Alaskans?

a. Initiative

b. Petition

c. Referendum

d. Recall

28. How can the Constitution be amended?