

PLAGIARISM 101

YOU PLAGIARIZE WHEN YOU QUOTE, PARAPHRASE, SUMMARIZE, OR PRESENT SOMEONE ELSE'S WORK WITHOUT GIVING CREDIT.

It's easy to copy and paste; why not just do it? You might think you're just borrowing, but it's much bigger than that. It's stealing!

The American Psychological Association defines plagiarism as “the act of presenting the words, ideas, or images of another as one’s own”

(Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 2020, p. 21).

USING IMAGES AND MUSIC - IT'S PLAGIARISM IF YOU:

- Copy images from websites into your own project
- Make a video using footage from others' videos or use copyrighted music for your soundtrack
- Perform another person's copyrighted music
- Compose a piece of music that borrows heavily from another composition

YOU MUST GET PERMISSION OR GIVE CREDIT TO THE CREATOR!

Copyright violation (using images, music, or other created works without permission) is a form of plagiarism, is illegal, and can result in loss of income for the creator and strong consequences for the plagiarizer.

TYPES OF PLAGIARISM

Turnitin.com* identifies a plagiarism spectrum:

Submitting another's work, word-for-word, as your own.

CTRL + C

Changing key words and phrases but retaining the essential content

REMIX
Paraphrases from multiple sources, made to fit together

RECYCLE
Borrowing generously from the writer's (your) previous work without citation

HYBRID
Combines perfectly cited sources with copied passages without citation

MASHUP
Mixes copied material from multiple sources

404 ERROR
Includes citation to non-existent or inaccurate information about sources

AGGREGATOR

RETWEET
Includes proper citation, but relies too closely on the text's original wording and/or structure
