

Cool Cat says...

When I'm upset I need to take a deep breath and think:

I don't want to be "hot" and blow-up,

I don't want to be "cold" and give-up.

I want to stay "cool"
and tell them what I
don't like, what I want instead, and what will happen if we can't solve our problem!
