

THE NAACP ANCHORAGE
In partnership with the Anchorage School District

Presents...

A COMMUNITY DIALOGUE

“Improving opportunities and life outcomes for young males of color”

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2015

6-8 PM

ASD EDUCATION CENTER BOARDROOM

Admission is free

We encourage educators, counselors, social workers, community groups, parents and the general public to attend

Dr. Allia L. Carter

Educator, College Administrator and Founding Director for the African American Initiative for Males (AIM) 2009 Flagg Social Justice Award, 2010 Fulbright-Hays Scholar, recipient of 2012 Katzner Research and Professional Development Award

Omar Tyree

New York Times best-selling author, a 2001 NAACP Image Award recipient for Outstanding Literature in Fiction, and a 2006 Phyllis Wheatley Literary Award winner for Body of Work in Urban Fiction

with George Martinez, Director and Founder of the Global Block Foundation

Reception immediately following

