

The Bo Seward Community Service Award – SAHS

When South Anchorage High School first opened in 2004, Bobbie “Bo” Seward helped form the Parent Teacher Student Organization (PTSO) and served as President for four years. To honor her dedication, the PTSO established the Bo Seward Community Service Award to celebrate those students who are dedicated to serving the community. The scholarship is awarded annually to a graduating South Anchorage High School Student in recognition of their outstanding community service. A $2,000 award will be given to the winner of the award with an additional gift of $500 given to the charity (non-profit organization) of the student’s choice.
