Third – Sixth Grade

Destinations

This game of Destinations will review the jobs of Silent Final e.

1. Print out the job cards, answer keys, and word cards. Cards will need to be cut before the game.
 - For the best printing results, change the orientation to "Landscape," and change the scale to "Actual size."
2. Place each job card in a different destination around the classroom. Make sure they are spread out as much as possible.
3. Assign one student to be in charge of each job destination. These students will be known as Destination Directors. Give Destination Directors the answer card for the destination they're overseeing.
4. Distribute one word card to each remaining student.
5. Project Student Directions on board for duration of the game.
6. Students will look at word number one and walk to the job destination that applies to that word.
7. Once students are at their destination, they will show their word to the Destination Director to confirm they are at the correct location.
8. Students will discuss with other students in that location how the job applies to their specific word and how they would mark the word.
9. Teacher monitors students and provides help, if needed.
10. Repeat the process for word number two, then word three, etc.

A decorative border surrounds the page, featuring a repeating pattern of snowflakes in shades of blue, teal, and purple. The snowflakes are arranged in a grid-like pattern, with larger, more detailed snowflakes at the corners and smaller, simpler ones in between. The background is white.
