

Anchorage School District

Welcome to ASD

1

Determine your child's needs

Think about your child's educational needs and your objectives as a parent. It's up to you because only you know what's most important to your family. Is it test scores, learning a second language, a specific academic focus, proximity to your home, before-and-after-school programs, or some other factor?

2

Research your options

Once you know what you and your child need from a school, learn about the school and program choices ASD offers. First become familiar with your neighborhood school, and then evaluate options for other schools. Find out what boundary you live in and check out your options at www.asdk12.org/AboutSchools. Choose the one that's the best fit for your child and your family. Ensure you understand the application and lottery process for alternative and charter schools.

Enroll or register

Students new to the district will need to go through an enrollment process, while a shorter registration process is used for returning students. Either way, completed paperwork needs to be submitted to the school your child will be attending. Also, take time to find out how to get involved at the school and help your child have a successful year.

Walk through these steps at www.asdk12.org/welcome.
