Hello again Bartlett High! Trouble is brewing on the Sword Coast, and heroes have taken up the challenge to stop it! The main campaign of the D&D Club is full, but fret not! Monsters and scoundrels lurk in the shadows for other bold travelers to face... we still have spots open! Feel free to show up Friday after school in room 343C to take part in Mr. March's side game, where anyone can join! It'll be a monster-of-the-week type game, where your character grows in strength the more sessions you show up for. That's all for now; adventure awaits!

Hello, creative minds! Tune in to your tranquility at our Writing and Art Club, the perfect oasis for those who seek a peaceful, inspiring space. Whether you're a wordsmith crafting stories or an artist bringing visions to life, our club offers a serene environment where your creativity can flourish. Join us in this quiet, chill haven every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday where art and words meet. The Writing and Art Club – your space to create, relax, and connect. See you there! And please don't criticize anime like middle school would do, especially Boyfriends from Webtoon. haha!"

It's Open Mic Time in the Library! Missed out on last year's chances to showcase your talents and express yourself? Well, you have more chances in 2024! Starting this Friday and the first Friday(or so) of each month, come to the library at lunch to participate or cheer on your fellow bears. Grab the mic and share your voice, whether it's through spoken word, music, poetry, or anything else you're passionate about. This is your chance to shine and let your creativity flow!
