Attn, Srs! This is your official reminder that senior photos for the yearbook are due by November 1st. That's right—you've got just a few days to pick the perfect photo where you actually look like you've got it together. No pressure, right? So, if you don't want your mom sending in that picture of you at age five with spaghetti all over your face, choose your masterpiece, and send it in! Oh, and don't forget to submit your senior quote at the same time, unless you want Mr. Turner to make one up for you. Trust me—you don't want that. Time's ticking, seniors. Get it done!
