November

Attention Bears! Do you have any questions about FAFSA? Or how next year's schedule change impacts credit requirements? Another Bartlett Forum will be held during lunch on Wednesday November 20th. The focus of this month's forum will be Graduation and College Readiness. Join us in the auditorium during lunch where administrators and counselors will be available to answer questions and provide information. Hope to see you there!

King

The YANA Club meets every Tuesday at lunch in room 426. YANA (You Are Not Alone) is a club for students who have ever had a hard time with mental health and want a welcoming space to share or just be with others who understand, or for anyone who is just interested in mental health and helping others. Please join us if you want to see what it's all about!
