Juniors and Seniors, are you planning on going to college or trade school? On Wednesday, March 19th, from 6:00 to 7:30 pm a College and Career Specialist from the Ak Commission on Postsecondary Education will be doing a presentation on Funding Your Future in the Bartlett HS Library. The presentation covers the cost you can expect for attending college/training schools and provides ways to finance it. Also, the Career Specialist will help seniors and families to set up their FAFSA account, which is a requirement to start the FAFSA process. You and your family can attend in-person or via Zoom. Please see your Counselor to sign up and for more information.
