Attention Bartlett High School Juniors and Seniors. Are you looking for a job? Well, we have an opportunity for you! Tuesday, March 22nd, from 11:00 to 1:30, will be the King Tech High School Spring Hiring Event at KTHS. At present, we have close to 50 businesses that have already registered for the event and more are signing up daily. Take advantage of this awesome opportunity to explore these great job opportunities and to get hired! All interested Juniors and Seniors are encouraged to attend. You will need to dress professionally and bring your resume, as you may be interviewed on the spot. Please sign up with your counselor now, as there are limited spaces available.

Juniors and Seniors – did you know that you can earn the Seal of Biliteracy even if you're not taking a world language class this year? The Seal of Biliteracy is to recognize students who speak English and another language. Stop by room 214D to talk to Ms. Ayers if you're interested in learning more about how to qualify. She can get you scheduled for testing and answer your questions about the Seal of Biliteracy.
