

Bartlett High School Morning Announcements
Wednesday, September 25th
2,3,5,6 Period Day

Good morning Bartlett Bears! This week, from September 22nd to 28th, we're celebrating Banned Books Week. This is a time to recognize the importance of the freedom to read and stand up for our right to explore diverse stories and ideas—even those that have been challenged or banned. Books give us the power to think, grow, and discover new perspectives. So, stop by the library to learn more about Banned Books Week, and let's celebrate the freedom to read and the power of stories! What banned or challenged book will you read this week?

Attention Juniors and Seniors - thinking about what you are going to do after high school? Come check out the College & Career Fair on October 9 at UAA! Discover opportunities in college programs, local apprenticeships, military pathways, and various employment options. You'll get to meet experts and professionals who can provide guidance towards planning your future. This opportunity is open to both 11th and 12th grade students, so make sure you talk to your counselor today to get a permission slip. Admission is first come, first serve!

Guess what Bartlett? HOSA health professionals will be meeting on Thursday September 26 in room 505 during lunch. If you are interested in health careers and would like to hear more about our medical club, please join us. We have opportunities for leadership, shadowing, internships and other work-based learning experiences.

JUNIORS and SENIORS, Want to find a cheat code on life? Have the school place you in your dream job while still in high school. Develop the relationships to those who are hiring for your dream job before you even have the education to fill the job. Impress local companies so they want to hire you before you even leave high school. This is the CTE Internship program. The deadline to apply is Friday, September 27th. Talk to your favorite CTE teacher for more information. Let school do the heavy lifting for you. Apply today:
