

Steller Wear shirts are now ready to be ordered!

For those of you eager to get your Steller Wear, the deadline for a Spring order is April 30th and orders will need to be picked up from Dooley's Athletic in Anchorage. You will receive an email when they are ready.

For those of you that want to wait, there will also be a fall order put together that will be brought to the school. The deadline for that order will be sometime in September and more information will come out at the beginning of school.

To place an order, go to: <https://stellerschoolstore.itemorder.com/sale> and make your purchase directly through the website.

There are lots of different styles and colors to choose from.
