PRINCIPAL NOTES – Kitty Logan

Thank you, PTO, for the lunch you gave me last week for Principal Appreciation Month. I really enjoyed the pizza, salad and soda. I felt very special.

The November PTO Meeting is scheduled for tonight at 6:00 p.m. Wasn't the Book Fair and Fall Festival a huge success? That is because of our dedicated and creative parents. Come and help them plan the next event.

The Anchorage School District will vote on renewing our charter tonight at 7:00 p.m. If they vote in favor the charter goes to the Department of Education for final approval.

Thank you, Arctic Chiropractic, for providing 10 minute massages to my staff. It is nice to have someone massage the tension away.

There is an Owl Presentation scheduled for Friday, November 9. The owl visit is always a hit with our students.

There is NO SCHOOL scheduled next Monday, November 12. Teachers have in-service that day.

Did you know?:

You can e-mail any of the APB Members if you have questions and concerns. Phone numbers and email addresses are listed in most of the newsletters if there is room to publish the information.

FALL PICTURE RETAKES - Nov. 14

Retakes are next Wednesday. If your student was absent on Oct. 3, we will be taking their picture. If you did not like the original picture, please send the photo packet in and we will retake their picture. If you have any specific requests (ie-smile with teeth), please include them so we know what your preference is. Fall photos are used in the yearbook, so if you did not order pictures but still would like a different picture of your student to go in the yearbook, we can retake the picture. Any questions contact Jennifer 884-5008.

SPECIALIST NEWS - PE, Art, Music, Technology

MUSIC – Mrs. Harry

We still have had NO Volunteer responses for the musical. Parent help is imperative to ensure this activity is a success! I cannot do it alone – Please let me know if you can help.

The students have voted and it looks like the music department is putting on a Musical this year! This opportunity is available to 4th-6th grade students. Rehearsals will be Mondays and Wednesdays until 4:30 pm, beginning in mid-November through the performance date in March. Audition info will be coming soon! In the meantime, I will need volunteers to help with costumes, set design, and directing. Specifically, we are in need of a volunteer to start rehearsals at 3:30 until I am available at 3:45. If you can help out, please email harry_lacy@asdk12.org
