Baggy Books: Your child will start bringing home baggy books this week. They are supposed to read the book to you, with your help if they need it. Fill out a line on the yellow paper and then make sure you send the bag and book to school the next day. They will have a new book each night, as their reading progresses they will move on to more challenging books. Every day they have read their book and had their paper initialed they get a sticker. Help them to remember this homework every day!

Volunteers: For baggy book reading we need volunteers first thing in the morning right after drop off time. You don't have to sign up for this time; you can just come in if you have a few extra minutes in the morning. The kids will be reading their Baggy Books to an adult each morning.
